

GERMANS FORCED TO NEW RETREAT BETWEEN OISE AND AISNE HUNDREDS OF NURSES REQUIRED, SAYS CHAIRMAN FRED KURTZ

TUBBORN RESISTANCE IS SMASHED COMPLETELY BY ARMIES OF GEN. DEBENEY

Now in Position to Push Rapidly Along the Upper Oise Valley Through Level Country and With No Streams to Bar the Way; Situation Grave in Hapsburg Empire.

NEW AUSTRIAN FOREIGN MINISTER UNDER FIRE

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Germany's armies have begun a new retreat, this time between the Oise and the Aisne. General Debeney's first army, in the teeth of stubborn resistance and repeated counter attacks, has succeeded in swinging on its right flank so that it faces east. It has reached Guise and the Guisefar road, driving the enemy before it.

General Debeney now is in position to push rapidly along the upper Oise valley toward Hirson and Vervins through a level country, devoid of streams. The first result of his progress is to force the enemy opposing the tenth and fifth French armies, exhausted by fruitless counter attacks to begin a backward movement which is eventually bound to extend to the front before Reims. This will open to the fourth army a double passage of the Aisne and Ardennes canal.

General Debeney's success was won by sheer hard fighting. The importance the enemy attached to stopping this progress up the Oise may be gathered from the fact that the Germans yesterday threw in three fresh divisions, which however, were knocked out.

BRITISH REFUSE

DETERMINED ATTACKS

LONDON, Oct. 28.—British troops Sunday repulsed a determined German effort to drive them from the heights of Valenciennes. WILSON SEEKS TO BE MASTER OF DESTINIES OF THE WORLD, CHARGE OF CHAIRMAN HAYS

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(N.Y.U. H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, has issued an address to the Republicans of the country calling upon them to take up what he termed the challenge of the President of the United States in "questioning the motives and fidelity" of the Republican members of congress at the November election.

Chairman Hays has been in conference with a number of prominent Republicans since last Friday when the President's appeal was issued and it is said obtained their views before putting out his reply which was issued today at the headquarters of the Republican National Committee, 452 Fifth avenue. Chairman Hays says: "President Wilson has questioned the motives and fidelity of our representatives in congress. He has thereby impugned their loyalty and denied their patriotism. His challenge is to you who elected those representatives. You owe it to them, it is the honor of your great party and to your own self-respect to meet that challenge squarely, not only as Republicans but as Americans."

As your chairman call upon you to do it. "Mr. Wilson accuses the Republicans no credit whatever for having supported the war measures proposed by his administration, although they have done so with greater unanimity than the members of his own party. Despite that fact, he accuses them of having tried to usurp his proper functions."

"At no time and in no way have they tried to take control of the war out of his hands. The President knows that. The country knows it. You know it. A more ungracious, more unjust, more wanton, more mendacious accusation was never made by the most reckless slanders of the United States for partisan purposes. It is an insult, not only to every loyal Republican in congress, but to every loyal Republican in the land. It fully merits the resentment which rightfully and surely will find expression at the polls."

"Mr. Wilson grudgingly admits that the Republicans have been 'pro-war'—hardly that. No, it is because they are for peace though, not without victory, because they do not believe lasting peace can be obtained through negotiation, because they consider that 'U. S.' stands for unconditional surrender, as well as for the United States and Uncle Sam."

"The Democratic congress does not. Mr. Wilson does not. There is the issue clear as the noon-day sun. The country will decide. "Mr. Wilson wants only rubber stamps, his rubber stamps in congress. He says so. No one knows it better than Democratic congressmen. He calls for the defeat of pro-war Republicans and the election of anti-war Democrats. He, as the executive, is no longer satisfied to be one branch of the Government, as provided by the constitution. Republican congressmen must be defeated and Democratic congressmen must, as they would, yield in everything. That is obviously his idea—the idea of an autocrat calling himself the servant, but bidding for the mastery of this great free people."

"Mr. Wilson is for unconditional surrender. Surrender—Yes, for the unconditional surrender to himself of the Republican party, of the country, of the Allies—all to him, as a sole arbitrator and master of the destinies of the world. Do you stand for that? Answer with your votes."

seemed to him good enough to send fully 1,000,000 of their sons into battle, to furnish at least half of the army and far more than half of the money for winning the war, but they are not considered good enough to have voice in the settlement of the war.

"But Mr. Wilson's real purpose has nothing to do with the conduct of the war. He has had that from the beginning, has it now, and nobody dreams of interfering with his control. He wants just two things. One is full power to settle the war precisely as he and his sole, unselected, unappointed, unconfirmed personal advisor may determine. The other is full power as the 'unembarrassed spokesman' in affairs at home as he actually demands in his statement, to reconstruct in peace time the great industrial affairs of the Nation in the same way in unimpeded conformity with whatever Socialistic doctrines, whatever unlimited government ownership notions, whatever hazy whims may happen to possess him at the time. But at first, above all, with absolute commitment to free trade with all the world, thus giving to Germany out of the hand of fruits, of a victory greater than she could win by fighting a hundred years. A Republican congress will never assent to that. Do you want a congress that will, Germany does."

INFLUENZA SITUATION IN COUNTY APALLING SAYS A STATEMENT BY RED CROSS

Conditions are Revealed to Chairman J. Fred Kurtz and Other Officials by Tour of Districts Worst Affected; Thousands May Die if Not Given Nursing, Says Chairman Kurtz.

DEMAND FOR NURSES NEVER WAS MORE URGENT

"Thousands of persons are ill with influenza and pneumonia who will die from lack of attention that even inexperienced nurses can give unless prompt action is taken," says a statement issued today by Chairman J. Fred Kurtz of the county chapter of the Red Cross following a survey made Sunday by himself, Secretary Walter P. Schenck and Chairman T. J. Hooper of the Connellsville branch. The statement follows:

"Probably not within the lifetime of the present generation will there again occur an opportunity when greater good can be done by the women of Fayette county than at this time."

"A study of the daily press keeps one partially posted as to the increase and wane of the influenza epidemic throughout the country, but it is only when a local survey is made that the appalling conditions in Fayette county become apparent and the extreme imperative necessity of many additional volunteer and trained nurses is really brought home to us."

"At this very moment there are actually not hundreds but thousands of persons ill with influenza and pneumonia who will die from lack of the attention that even inexperienced nurses can give, unless prompt action is taken."

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Oct. 28.—On Friday night and early Saturday morning burglars visited the homes of F.
S. Dullinger, Rev. Ralph Scott, L. Miller, Mike Simon and M. Marshall. At Dullinger's, about 3 o'clock, their 11-year-old daughter was awakened to find a man in bed with her. She ran screaming to the room of her parents.
Her father hurried to investigate, but the man had opened the back door and got away.

Frank Kafoury, next door to Dullinger's, with Ralph Nelson took up the chase. While they were hunting back of Dullinger's burglars had gained entrance to the United Presbyterian parsonage.

At L. Miller's they got almost $100.
At Marshall's they got between $18 and $19, and at Simon's about $30. At the home of Robert Hood they raised a window and tried to come in but Mr.
Hood heard the window and chased them away with his cane.

No Hallowe'en Celebration
Owing to the influenza epidemic, Burgess S. P. Stevens has considered it necessary to issue a proclamation warning the public that a ban has been placed on all Hallowe'en celebrations this week. No parades will be allowed nor will boys and girls be allowed to play any pranks of any kind.
The police will place all persons causing any damage to property or taking part in any revellings under arrest and place a fine on them for violating this warning.

Lillian Hunt.
Lillian Hunt, aged 12 years, died Saturday morning at the Main street home of her grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Greene. Funeral services will be private Tuesday and interment will follow in the Mount Pleasant cemetery.

What She Wanted.
"My ideal husband," said the girl who had been reading cheap novels, "must be a strong, silent man, full of virtue and able to hear the heart and burden of the day without flinching—one who will not hear a word said about me and who will not utter an unkind word himself." "What you want is a deaf and dumb coal heaver," annured her friend.

War Department Issues Statement on Pneumonia Preventative.

The War Department has authorized the following statement on vaccination against pneumonia, no vaccination being made of influenza:

1. Vaccination against pneumonia has been given in two of the Army camps. At Camp Upton during the 10 weeks from the period of vaccination until the troops went overseas, no cases of pneumonia due to the type of pneumococcus protected against (I, II, and III) occurred among the vaccinated troops. The incidence of pneumonia from other organisms was only one-tenth as high among the vaccinated as among the unvaccinated. The incidence of pneumonia had been equal in the two groups.

2. The vaccine now being used is a live vaccine, given in a single injection, and containing pneumococci types I, II, and III. Reactions are, as a rule, rather less pronounced than after antityphoid vaccination.

3. This vaccine is intended to afford a certain degree of protection to healthy individuals against pneumonia; it is not intended to cure those already sick. It is not advised for persons suffering from acute colds or fever.

WOULD LIKE TO HAVE RUMOR MONGERS LET LOOSE "OVER THERE"

Vanderbilt Soldier Believes His Company Would Make Short Work of Them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Shallenberger of Vanderbilt received a letter from their son, H. D. Shallenberger, Jr., from "Somewhere in France." The following are extracts:

"My most enjoyable moment in France occurred today. We had been out on a hike and maneuver since 8 A. M. and when we came in at 7 P. M.
I went to headquarters to find two letters from you, mother. The one a 'book of greetings' from the Red Cross workers down at the James Cochran store. Since getting those I can even tell Rockefeller what real pleasure is.
It means a great deal to know so many people at home are thinking of me, and no one but you, mother, would have thought of the book. Thank them all for me for I was so pleased to have their message. It means so much to a fellow so far from home.

"I believe we are in for a severe winter, one that will, at times, tax our strength, our spirits and our determination sorely. But we are here to secure peace for the whole world, and by God's grace we will do it. This is no baby play over here. We are not here for our own pleasure or convenience, and neither are we giving up the comforts of home just to experiment.
The U. S. means business and 'Herr Bill' is going to find it out soon. But do not worry for me. No man who values peace and love and liberty would be content to sit calmly by the fire at home and let another fight his battles for him.

"At present, we drill hard all day, then have officers' school until about 3 P. M. We are all feeling fine and are treated just as well as any one could expect. Tell mothers not to believe any German propaganda to the contrary.

"As censor for our company, I note the optimistic tone of all the boys' letters and it is not a 'put on' cheerfulness either. I should like to see some of those false rumor people turned loose in our company.

"I expect we will go to the battle-front very shortly to try our rifle fire against the 'Deutschers' and put our wits against theirs. They are undoubtedly beaten, but we must keep on a short time yet to make them realize it.
'Bill' is too stubborn to see the end even when it stares him in the face.

"We left Waco, Texas, July 25 and arrived in France August 11, a pretty quick and strenuous trip, but we had a few days' rest in the hope of a good old French couple, who couldn't do enough for us. After sleeping most any place a feather bed was the real thing.

"Remember me to all the kind friends at home. Letters will reach me some place, and are more than welcome. If there is anything you think will interest people, please publish."

AFTER THE GRIPPE

To regain your health and strength again you must take a tonic and for this purpose the Medical Profession is prescribing Iron, Nux Vomica, Gentiana, Capsicum and Zinc Phosphate in some form. Many preparations containing Iron are very constipating, but this is overcome by the addition of Aloin in Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets, which contain all of the above tonic remedies.

In these Tablets you have all that is good in tonic medicines without any harmful effects. They are safe and sure health builders and at this particular time it would be hard to over-estimate their value.

Weigh yourself before taking them and see what you gain in weight and strength.

INCREASES APPROVED

More Scientific Financing of Express Business Suggested, However.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has approved proposed increases in express rates to become effective unless another method of giving the American Railway Express company added revenue in working out with the Railroad Administration.

The commission suggested that a more scientific method of providing added revenue for the express company would be to change the contracts with the Railroad Administration to give the express companies a larger proportion of transportation charges.

Old and Good Song.

That very well-known ditty, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" is the remains of an old crusader's song of the twelfth century. It has come down to us with many variations and inestimable verbal appendages.

Women all over the world realize more and more that their work at home will help the man at the front. It involves great sacrifices, hard work and unusual physical strength. Women of home should study nursing for war and for the home. A good way to learn is to ask your druggist for a copy or send 50c to publishers of the "Medical Adviser," 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and get a copy of their 1000 page book bound in cloth, with chapters on First Aid, Taking Care of the Sick or Wounded, Physiology, Hygiene, Anatomy, Sex Problems, Mother and Babe.
Nobody, man or woman, can do good work when health is impaired. If a woman is nervous or has dizzy spells, suffers from awful pains at regular or irregular intervals she should turn to tonics made up of herbs, and without alcohol, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo,

NEW HOSPITAL AT SCOTSDALE GOING SMOOTHLY

Number of Influenza Cases Not Considered Alarmingly Large.

COOPERATION OF PUBLIC ASKED

People Are Urged to Refrain from Spreading Wild Reports as to Number of cases and Fatalities; James Collins Dies at Everson.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Oct. 28.—Scottsdale's Emergency hospital is running smoothly. There are now 29 persons being treated at the hospital, about one-half of who were from Scottsdale proper. Dr. Lloyd of the University, and the ladies in charge are Mrs. England and Mrs. Stewart. From 10 to 11 in the morning and 2 to 4 in the afternoon have been set as visiting hours and all visitors are furnished with masks at the desk in the lobby of the hospital. The public is requested if they know of any person needing help to call the hospital. The public is asked to disregard all wild rumors about the physical condition of patients until they get the correct information. At all times the superintendent will be glad to answer all questions. Persons desiring to give blankets and pillows may do so by calling the hospital or Mrs. W. D.
Stoner, 141-J. Persons having nursing experience are asked to get in touch with the hospital. The civilian relief committee wish to thank persons who donated fruits and vegetables and would like to get more.
Dr. Slesky, of the board of health, has made the following statement to ease the minds of those persons who have heard that Scottsdale's death rate is high. "So far the official record for Scottsdale shows five deaths and conditions are not considered alarming."

James Collins.
James Collins, aged 12 years, died at his home at Everson on Friday night. He was a son of Kieran Collins. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the home and interment followed in the St. John's cemetery. James was possessed of a talent for music and it was being developed. He had required quite a reputation as a singer and was pursuing the study of music.

Michael Yuhus.
Michael Yuhus died Friday night at Donnelly. For 21 years he has been a leveler for the H. C. Frick Coke company at that place. He leaves a wife and four children. Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning and interment will follow in Hill Grove cemetery, Conneltsville.

A PITTSBURG LADY WANTS EVERYONE TO KNOW ABOUT IT

Mrs. M. P. Garrison Says Ten-Herbs Relieved Her of Stomach Trouble.

That Ten-Herbs is repeating its success here is proven by the large number of local testimonials received daily from people in signed statements, telling of the benefit they have derived from its use. Not a day passes but what numbers of Pennsylvania people call at the headquarters at The Ten-Herbs Store to thank him for what the remedy has done for them.

Only the other day Mrs. M. P. Garrison, who resides at No. 4518 Liberty avenue, and is a well-known and popular lady with a wide acquaintance in Pittsburg made the following statement:

"For the past 12 years I have suffered with my stomach; I was bloated with gas, could not sleep at night and felt all played out. I had pains in my back and was very short of breath—had severe palpitation of the heart, caused by the gas in my system. I was very nervous and was always constipated. I had taken a number of different medicines without any real benefit, and finally decided to try Ten-Herbs. Now I have a fine appetite, sleep well and have no more indigestion or gas in my stomach. I feel greatly relieved in every way."

Such words as these and those of many others which have been printed, have wide influence, for they come from people of standing and integrity, who have given Ten-Herbs a fair trial and have been greatly benefited thereby.

Ten-Herbs is purely a vegetable preparation, extracted from the roots, herbs, barks, berries and fibres of numerous medicinal plants. It is nature's own remedy and works wonderfully. It gives almost immediate benefit and leads to permanent relief in practically every case where people suffer as above outlined.

Ten-Herbs is sold in Conneltsville at the Conneltsville Drug Co's Store.
